• Scholarship / Tuition Assistance Opportunities - In keeping with our mission, F.A.C.E. strives to make equestrian vaulting accessible to every athlete that has a desire to train with us. We understand that while an athlete's success is clearly driven by their dedication and ability to perform it may also be dependent upon financial support. When possible, as donations and grant funds become available, F.A.C.E. will help to bridge the financial resource gap to make equestrian vaulting accessible and ensure that those with financial hardships are not excluded.

• Club Membership: All new students of FACE participating in any vaulting package or team must become a club member and pay the $130 club membership fee. You can still be a member of another club with the American Vaulting Association if you prefer, but if you do become an AVA recognized member of FACE, we will cover your $50 AVA registration fees free of charge.

• Pay before you vault: All drop in classes or short term packages should be paid before training begins.

• Method of payment: We prefer that registration and class payments are made online through the FACE-Mind Body App: 1.) Visit our website at www.facevaulting.com 2.) Click on the "Vaulting Store" tab on the top menu bar. 3.) Create an account and add the name / information of each vaulter in training (or login if you already have an account.) 4.) Click on the "Classes" tab 5.) Select your class day and time 6.) Select "Single reservation" or "Recurring reservation" for auto-pay. We kindly ask that payments be made on monthly 4-week auto-pay to help us reduce club administrative costs. Please call or text club manager, Teresa Woolson, at 818-590-3319 if you need help setting up your account or would simply prefer to pay over the phone.

• Monthly fees: Fees for all vaulting packages, including team package dues, will be due in full by the FIRST of every month for that month's vaulting training. Payments are considered late by the fifth of each month. All payments received after the fifth will be subject to a late fee of $25.00. (Late fees will be waived for the first month of any team Training package.)

• Competition invoices: These fees must be paid before the close of the entries and will be invoiced in advance. FACE will not advance any entry fees. Failure to pay competition fees in advance may result in your vaulter not being entered.

• Returned checks. Returned checks will be subject to all bank fees. Including, but not limited to, all fees incurred by a check being returned on the Club account.

• Failure to pay: Please pay your bills on time. Failure to pay may result in your child not being allowed to participate

• Team Vaulting Packages: All advanced team-vaulting packages will be worked out on a year-to-year basis based on the particular team and its budget. These packages will include some level of extra monthly individual vaulting practices to be determined on a year to year basis. Those inclusive lessons will not count against any individual vaulting package purchases. For example, if you are a full paying competing member of a F.A.C.E. Team and you want 8 individual vaulting classes as well, you can purchase a package of six classes, and 8 classes would be made available. All alternate vaulters will get one complimentary lesson per month in addition to all the team training.

• Refunds: There are no refunds at F.A.C.E. Any classes canceled from our end will be made up at the soonest opportunity. Make-up classes are not guaranteed for vaulters who missed class for any reason.

F.A.C.E. Code of Excellence

Free Artists Creative Equestrians (F.A.C.E) is a club dedicated to enhancing the lives of all its members and spectators through the practice of equestrian vaulting. Fueled by the love of horses, the arts, and expressed through collaborative projects in and out of the sport, F.A.C.E.'s mission is to educate and inspire people to expect and see more within themselves and each other. As athletes in equestrian sport and performers of this truly special Equestrian art-form, F.A.C.E. puts horse welfare, artistic exploration, and competitive excellence as the driving forces for all we do.

F.A.C.E. Club Rules and Policies

1. Officers, coaches, vaulters, parent(s) and/or guardians of FACE are reminded that they are representatives of the American Vaulting Association, US Equestrian Federation, their community, their Country as well as the Club. The Team will be evaluated by the actions of its members. Taking this into account, we expect all our members to acknowledge their obligation to uphold and adhere to the highest standards of ethics, horsemanship, sportsmanship and citizenship.
2. Members representing the Club internationally will abide by the rules, laws, regulations and bylaws of the F.E.I. and countries and province in which members travel.
3. Abide by the rules and regulations of the facility at home and/or away at competitions. Treat all other users of the facility with courtesy and respect at all times.
4. Members will place the horse's welfare above all other considerations, and faithfully observe the US Equestrian Federation and the FEI Code of Conduct.
5. All property of the Club and other people should be respected at all times, including while traveling to events, while participating at events, and while residing in accommodations.
6. Uphold the positive atmosphere by avoiding negativity and conduct that can undermine the unity and goals of the club and/or team. This includes, but is not limited to offensive behavior, arguing with staff or each-other, negative gossip, the spreading of rumors, and/or derogatory remarks.
7. Use of alcohol while under the legal age, and/or use or possession of other illegal substances while representing the club is forbidden.
8. Always keep our environment at the barn tidy by putting things away and always throwing any trash in the garbage bin.
9. We do not condone tobacco smoking by any team members and/or minors.
10. Members will treat all F.A.C.E representatives, including peers, and parents with due respect. All members acknowledge that coaches and duly appointed leaders/chaperones must make decisions for the group, and in the spirit of cooperation, will respect those decisions made in the best interest of the club and teams.
11. Any grievances will be brought to the attention of the head coach or other club officials or coaches in order for us to make all efforts to solve any potential problems in a timely manner. We want communication to be open and unfiltered by fear of any backlash. We want everyone to have their chance to be heard in order to create the best possible atmosphere for all.

2018 F.A.C.E. Member Contract

1. Attitude: I will make an effort to have a positive and helpful attitude in all team activities. Positive behavior involves honesty and kindness even when facing personal difficulties. Showing good sportsmanship and humility is important in defeat, but even more important in victory. Put-downs, fighting, excuses, insults, self degradation, excessive sarcasm or complaining/whining is detrimental to team moral and I understand it will not be tolerated.

Vaulter Initial: _____ Parent Initial: _____

2. Attendance: (Applies to WEG Team and Team 2 FACE Members)

I will attend all official team clinics at training sessions other than the specific dates listed on our F.A.C.E. calendar and signed off by the head coach. I understand attendance for all team practices and clinics is mandatory and expected. Team training schedules have been made in advance and have been provided to me. I have had the opportunity to communicate any known serious conflicts with that schedule such as SAT's or Prom, giving the head coach the best chance to plan training to ensure maximum attendance while being as accommodating as possible to other significant obligations. If I absolutely must be absent from training due to family emergency or extreme circumstances such as funeral, fire, flood, injury, or sickness, I realize FACE will be understanding, but promise to give as much notice as possible and will work hard to make up for my absence as soon as I can return. I acknowledge that my maximum attendance is not only a courtesy to coaches and longeurs, but to the team members and parents who do make the sacrifices to be at all the practices in order to facilitate the success of the team as a whole. Fragmentation will prevent success, but in unity we can accomplish anything.

Vaulter Initial: _____ Parent Initial: _____

3. Health/Injury: I understand that F.A.C.E. takes injuries and health very seriously. If attending a vaulting training session or event will truly be detrimental to my health or the health of others, I will stay home and recover. However, if I am on a team/squad, I understand that my support of the team is of benefit whether or not I am able to participate in physical training or performances. If I am able to attend school then I am able to attend team training. If being bundled up or resting on the side to participate in training for creative input or moral support is possible without harming others, or myself then my attendance is still expected.

Vaulter Initial: _____ Parent Initial: _____

4. Punctuality / Initiative: I will make all efforts to be on time to training. "On time" means to be there early and ready to go when training begins. I will call the head coach if I am going to be more than fifteen minutes late. If I am late, I understand it is disrespectful and disruptive to the other members, so I will do all I can to always be on time. I understand the club can't afford to start every class twenty minutes late due to the changing of clothes or chit chat. I will rush to get ready and see the coach for direction when I arrive.

Vaulter Initial: _____ Parent Initial: _____

5. Work Ethic/ Tenacity: I will always perform to the best of my ability. I will work to my maximum at practice as well as at competitions. I will be intense in my efforts. I refuse to stop attempting to succeed, but I will not reduce my effort for fear of failure. I have thought about what is meant by the saying "Do or do not. There is no try." For all members of teams/squads, I see the team's goals as my goals, and I will work hard to develop my skills and correct my errors for the improvement of us all. Vaulter Initial: _____ Parent Initial: _____

6. Communication: I will always communicate with FACE coaches about what I'm feeling or thinking, whether it be about training, other team members/ issues, or even my non-vaulting life if it affects the team, positive or negative, at the soonest possible non-disruptive opportunity. I understand that the coaches want to know how I feel and what I think, and even if they are intense or busy, I will trust that they care about me. I will provide coaches with my feedback in private if I ever believe it could be helpful to the team or the club. Any public feedback I provide should be beneficial for everyone to hear and is intended to have a positive effect on the team.

Vaulter Initial: _____ Parent Initial: _____

7. Desire to Grow: I understand I am an athlete and that athletes need to be self-motivated and to develop a "will to win". This means I will be willing to do what it takes to excel by coming to practices, working hard, get myself enough quality sleep, and do all I can to follow coach's instructions even if it's really hard. I commit to being the best I can be by not only working at practice, but also at home whenever possible to improve my strength, condition, and nutritional health. Vaulter Initial: _____

Parent Initial: _____

8. Commitment to food: I am fully committed to maintain an adequate and responsible weight that reflects the intensity of the physical demands placed on me in this sport. I will do all I can to prevent myself from getting to a physical condition that most reasonable people would consider too thin for an athlete, and if I feel that I need to lose weight or adjust my weight up or down for whatever reason, I commit to speaking to one of the coaches before I make any dramatic adjustments to my intake of food. I know the FACE coaches are there for me to help me with this if I need it. I understand that food is my fuel and together with proper hydration provides me with all the energy and mental clarity that the team and I need to be fit and focused for success. I am fully committed to having a healthy relationship with food, and I will consider my adequate and nutritional eating with the same priority as I will treat my physical safety when crossing the street.

Vaulter Initial: _____ Parent Initial: _____

9. Horse Care and Welfare: I commit to putting the care and health of all horses we interact with as our top priority as vaulters. I will always do as much as I can to help care for FACE horses or any horse that we are able to train with. I will volunteer to help with the horses without having to always be asked. I understand that my greatest honor as a vaulter is to be able to work with horses, and since they aren't asked if they want to be involved in vaulting, I am committed to see that they love their experience with vaulting and vaulters. I also agree to respect other horses and riders we come into contact with at anytime and anywhere. My behavior not only reflects upon myself, and the club, but our sport as well, and I want to give vaulters the best reputation possible.

Vaulter Initial: _____ Parent Initial: _____

10. Time management/ Academics: I will prioritize my life with the end goal in mind, and I will include the club's success as part of my prioritized goals not to compromise. I will plan ahead and maintain a schedule. I will manage my time to my best ability in order to excel in school so I don't miss training due to falling behind. I understand that FACE wants me to have good academic results too, and would like to hear compliments about me in all aspects of my life, not just vaulting. That being said, I also will give vaulting training prioritization and respect just as I do school work.

Vaulter Initial: _____ Parent Initial: _____

11. Financial Responsibility: I understand that horse care is expensive and that world class vaulting training involves not only significant horse knowledge and commitment of time, but also significant money. I understand that the success of the team depends on the club meeting its financial obligations, and that means us meeting our obligations as a family. Parents are committed to pay monthly vaulting dues by the first of every month, as well as all competition charges on the date they are due. As a vaulter I know my parents are investing a lot into my opportunity to vault and meeting the obligation they agreed to, so I am committed to doing all I can do to help with the financial burden if and whenever my parents or club could use extra help. This includes, but is not limited to taking part or taking advantage of any fund-raising opportunities that may arise. I agree that vaulters should help with club fund-raising whenever possible, and I understand that the club and coaches will do what they can to help facilitate whatever fund-raising efforts my family needs to do in order to pay for vaulting.

Vaulter Initial: _____ Parent Initial: _____

12. Integrity and Respect: I will show the utmost respect to all longeurs, coaches, vaulting parents, facility managers, vaulters, and anybody we are in contact with as representatives of FACE or our sport. If I have a problem with the way someone is treating me or with the way someone is treating others, I commit to speaking to a team coach and/or club parent about it in order for FACE leaders to address the problem in the best way possible. I agree that coaches, vaulters, and all club members should embrace their position as role models for younger children and act to the highest standard of integrity and class. I agree honesty is always the best policy and I commit to tell the truth, even when it's difficult to do so. I will also be kind to others even when I may not agree or appreciate what they do or say. "An eye for an eye leaves the whole world blind", so I commit to always try to be the bigger person and exhibit all my maturity in any dispute or challenge.

F.A.C.E. Parent Pledge

We ask that all parents read, sign and return this form with your packet, and follow the Parent Pledge as a condition for your and your vaulter's membership in Free Artists Creative Equestrians.

I understand and will follow the Free Artists Creative Equestrians Club Rules and Policies. I (along with the coach) will also help my vaulter understand and live by the principles of the FACE Member Contract.

I will follow the FACE Parent Conduct Rules as well as any parent rules my vaulter's coach or the club creates from time to time to foster a more successful vaulting environment.

I will focus on the goal of using vaulting to teach life lessons, and leave all other goals (skills development, competitive goals) to the vaulters and coaches.

I will leave the coaching to the coaches, the lunging to the lungeurs, and the judging to the judges, and will refrain from second guessing their decisions or techniques about my vaulter, or any vaulter.

I will keep an open line of communication with the coach, and will bring up any concerns directly with the coach first, and in a private setting.

I will use positive encouragement to fill the "emotional tanks" of my vaulter, their teammates, the coaches, the lungeurs and our volunteers.

I will be a positive role model for my vaulter and encourage sportsmanship by showing respect and courtesy, and by actively demonstrating positive support for all those in our vaulting ecosystem, and all who come in contact with our vaulting ecosystem.

F.A.C.E. Parent Conduct Rules

Free Artists Creative Equestrians is committed to creating a safe and positive environment for their members' physical, emotional and social development. Drawing upon the FACE Member Contract and Parent Pledge, parents are expected to abide by the following rules.

Please promptly inform the coach if your vaulter has any physical disability, injury or ailment that may affect the safety of your vaulter or the safety of others.

During practices and competitions, the barrel area and vaulting arena are for vaulters, coaches, and lungers only. Please feel free to watch (without disturbing the practice!) from the sidelines. The lower arena has a designated area with seating especially meant for parents and the upper covered arena has an observation level above for parents to observe practice. We love having parents interested in their child's training. We also need our separation in order to be effective coaches and to maintain the attention and discipline of the vaulters independent of parental interaction.

If your vaulter must be absent or late to practice, please text the coach as early as possible.

Please speak to your vaulter's coach directly if you have questions or concerns about the Following:

- Your own vaulter - performance, progress, emotional well being
- Your vaulter's team - practice, competition performance, team dynamics
- Horses
- Competition - scoring, placements, horses

It is never appropriate to:

Approach a vaulter (other than your own during a break) or parent to offer performance suggestions or assessments during practice or competition.

Criticize or blame any vaulter for making a mistake, losing a competition, in response to a perceived poor performance, or for any other reason.

Initiate discussions with coaches, lungers or vaulters in the competition arena.

Initiate dialogue about our vaulters, results, or decisions of any kind with any competition officials, especially at competition. Please work with your coach if you have concerns or thoughts.

If you are interested in further engaging with the leadership of our sport in the USA, you are encouraged to attend the AVA Annual Meeting in March or other forums throughout the year where officials make themselves available for dialogue with membership. Vaulting administration of all kind is made up of mostly volunteers, so your interest and willingness to get involved would be welcomed, especially as a positive representative of our club

Dear Clients, (write name of client) _____

We are happy to have you at El Campeon Farms, and we will do everything we can to make sure you and your horse(s) are comfortable here. We've outlined important rules and guidelines that we ask our clients, trainers and staff to observe in order to maintain the highest level of organization, safety and comfort for everyone, while respecting that this is a private family farm. We strive to create a professional, positive, relaxed and drama/gossip free environment and ask that you help us obtain that goal.

Boarders and Clients

- Please respect that this is a private family farm. We ask that you stay in the horse specific areas, and do not wander around the property. Stay on DG paths. Do not walk your horse around on the paved roads.
- Please receive permission from Christy or Mark before inviting guests to the farm.
- El Campeon Farms should know about all visitors prior to their arrival. This includes farriers and vets so that we don't have gridlock in the farrier cross ties or vet room.
- Please leave your dog(s) at home. Only trainers are permitted to bring well-behaved dogs.
- ECF is not responsible for any mishaps as a result of a dog.
- If you are using crossties, please leave them as clean as you found them- manure and hair swept up and the cross ties linked together.

Arenas

- Lunging is allowed ONLY in the lunging ring. Do not lunge in the outdoor or indoor arenas. ^(Exception for vaulting) The drag for our specialized footing will not go deep enough to erase lunging tracks, which will result in uneven footing.
- The Grand Prix arena needs to be closed for conditions due to the drought or for maintenance from time to time- please respect those closures. In instances of drought, the field will be closed indefinitely.
- During the rainy season, a schedule will be maintained for the indoor arena, allowing 4-5 horses at a time maximum.
- We hold various training events/clinics at the farm throughout the year. We will give as much advanced notice as possible and post the ring schedules so you may plan your schedule accordingly.
- There is filming from time to time at the farm and we will do our best to have as minimal disruption to the barn as possible.

Vehicles

- After entering the ECF gate, please turn left at the intersection and park behind the main barn pulling your car all the way up to the log stop, when leaving, go out that same way- do not use the road that goes in front of the main barn.
- You must not drive faster than 10 mph while driving on the premises.
- Please ask first if you have any need to use any of the barn vehicles (i.e., golf cart).
- Please keep your vehicles on the asphalt (please don't drive on the grass or the rubber pavers).
- Please use dirt area behind the barn to load and unload horse trailers. Clean up all mess immediately.

Security

- Gate codes will be given to you – please do not share with anyone.
- If you have a guest arriving, have them use the callbox to contact the office.
- Security cameras are installed in the barn and tack room.

I have read, and understand all rules above. I agree to abide by the terms specified in this document. I understand that, should I, or a member of my party, violate these conditions, ECF retains the right to terminate my Boarding Agreement at any time.
